WOMEN'S WOE

IN REGARD TO THE NEW CLERKSHIPS.

An Indignation Meeting-The Failure of Secretary Teller to Appoint Women to Office-Resolutions Adopted and Speeches Made-Their Future Action.

A meeting of the lady applicants for positions in the War and Interior Departments, who were ruled out in the appointments recently made, was held at room 49, Corcoran Bullding, last evening. Upon being called to order, Mrs. Charlotte Smith was selected as chairman, Mrs. Mary Barton Green as secretary, and Mrs. Roberts, the great gossiper of the Sunday press, as corresponding secretary. The chair stated the object for which the meeting had been called, and the secretary read the fol-lowing resolutions, which

WERE ADOPTED WITHOUT A DISSENTING VOICE: WARE ADDITED WITHOUT A DESIRATING VOICE:

1. Resolved, Whereas under the recent approved act of Congress calling for more than one thousand additional clerks, women are excluded by the imperative decision of Secretaries Lincoin and Teller, we hereby enter our protest against said decision.

decision.
Resolved, Whereas this act is contrary to and said decision.

2. Resolved, Whereas this act is contrary to and a "new departure" from the n-unal practice of secrotaries of departments; and whereas such section abridges the rights and privileges granted to women for the past twenty years; and whereas it closes the doors of employment to honest and competent women, many of them the wilows, or hans, and sisters of ex-Union roldiers, who are in absolute want, we do hereby earnessly declare against said action.

3. Resolved, Whereas we believe women are equally as competent to adjust claims in the Pension and War Departments (where the present appointments are being made) as men, providing they receive the same instructions that men do; and whereas we believe from information received that women have been excluded for political purpose, and also because these Secretaries are opposed to employing women in any of the government departments, we do therefore believe thour duty to make known these facts by the caling of a meeting at the Nation's Candial to give expression to this infusice to women.

4. Resolved, Whereas we have been taught to believe this a "rece republic," where "equal rights" to all are to be granted, we do there fire protest in the name of this republic against "rules" and a "one-man power.

5. Resolved, in view of the foreyoning to form a

7. Resolved, That we will call upon the soldiers of the country to defend the rights of these widows and orphans that out by this "one man power" from the very gates of the Cariol, which their husbands, brothers, and fathers died to defend and save. In the name of liberty and loyalty, of sorrow and savifice, they have waited, prayed, and hoped, shmist pennyiess, for month, only to be told at last, "No women will be appointed loss." 8. Resolved, Whereas we have realized that defeat

8. Recolved, Whereas we have realized that defeat in war, in the midst of sacrifice and immer, spors the warrior on to grander deeds and to victorious fields—so our defeat shall be but the beginning of a warfare that shall never coase—until we see the words posted over the gates to this Capitol and the doors of these departments, "No one-man power 'rules' here," and "equal rights" under the "American fag" to the women of this nation.

9. Resolved, That these resolutions shall be printed and a copy of them sent to the labor organizations, Grand Army Posts, and political headquarters in the different States.

After same general discussion, the case of an

After some general discussion, the case of an Degon widow was cited as being one of piculiar. hardship. This lady's husband, two sons, and sonn-law were massacred by the Modocs, and she has been in Washington during the past session of Congress pressing for relief. Her funds becoming exhausted, she made an application for a position under the Interior Department, stating that she would be glad to accept even an appointment as charwoman. Under Secretary Telier's inexorable flat she had been ruled out. The action of Secretary Folger in providing for the women who were on the temporary rolls of his department at the close of the fiscal year was then alinded to, and a resolution was passed commending his course and contrasting it with that of Secretaries Linoln and Teller. THE CHAIRMAN THEN ADDRESSED THE MEETING at some length, and said that the working women of the country were prepared to enter their protest against this display of the one-man power. Alluding to the charge that corrupt women now held positions in the Departments, she claimed that this shameful abuse should not be charged to the account of the helpless soldiers' widows and orphans who were neither silks nor dia-monds; that the responsibility should be charged to Rep esentatives and Senators who were TOO MEAN EVEN TO PAY POR THEIR VICES but saddled them upon the public Treasury. She called particular attention to the action of Senator Lapham, who, when selected as the chairman of the Committee on Woman Suffrage, had sneaked in his own son as clerk of that committee, instead f selecting some woman who was thoroughly casted on the questions to be submitted to it. ioner Dudley, who had stated that in the examination of possion cases there was much in the way of testimony that A WOMAN SHOULD NOT READ, she said there were many women, applicants for places in his bureau, who had been nurses throughout the war, and after dealing as they had with the raw material that makes up the besis of a majority of the pension claims, it was a squeam-ish, strained modesty that undertook to debar them from houest work where they only read of it n paper. A number of speeches followed, afte which a committee of four, consisting of Mrs. Charlotte Smith, Mrs. Green, Mrs. M. Butler, and Mrs. Roberts, were appointed a committee on permanent organization. During the course of the evening it was several times asserted that the association was in possession of a full array of facts in regard to the appointments of WOMEN OF QUESTIONABLE CHARACTER which had been urged and secured by Senators Representatives, and prominent governmen officials, which at the proper time would be given to the public. After a strong appeal from the chairman to all working women to give their aid and earnest support to this strugg le fortheir rights now going on, the meeting adjourned to meet at the same place at 7:30 o'clock on Thursday next.

SCHOOL TROUBLES IN PETERSBURG. PETERSBURG, VA., Aug. 10.—Pursuant to adjourn ment the city school board held a meeting at the high school building this afternoon, with closed doors, to take action in reference to yester-day's meeting, when Major E. B. Branch, the Reday's meeting, when Major E. B. Branch, the Re-adjuster State superintendent of public schools of this city, refused to recognize the board as a legally organized body, and declined to admin-ister the oath of office to its members when re-quested to do so. The board at the meeting this afternoon adopted the following resolution: "That this school board as at present organized with a legally qualified quorum, does re-enact and confirm all its past actions, which were conscien-tiously performed for the good of the public school system of the city of Petersburg." Af or the adoption of the resolution the board appointed a committee to prepare a report of what has transpired, to be submitted to the city council at its next meeting, to be held on the 22d of this month. Superintendent Branch's action in refus-ing to administer the eath of office to the board to approved by Governor Cameron. It is thought should the State board of education remove the present school board, which has only one Read-juster member, a board will be appointed that will place colored teachers in colored public schools, which the present school board practically refused to do. The State board of education consists of Governor Cameron, Attorney-General Blair, and Superintendent of Instruct on Farr. The situation of affairs has been the general theme of conversation to-day.

The Washington Aqueduct. The appointment of Major Garrett J. Lydecker to take charge of the extension of the District water supply, and to relieve Colonel Casey of the charge of the Washington Aqueduct, is a change which will meet with general approval. Hereto-fore the general charge of the aqueduct by means of which the citizens of the District receive their water supply, has been under the control of an Army officer, and when any extension of mains was desired by the District authorities correspondence and interviews between the local and the government officers in char, e were necessary before the work could be commenced. Now that the important extension for which Congress made a liberal appropriation is about to be undertaken it is fitting that the entire charge of the water supply works should be placed under the District Engl neer Commissioner, which will insure the prompt and thorough prosecution of the work, and that it will be in perfect harmony with the general plan of the water supply.
